INTRODUCTION

BACKGROUND

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company (hereinafter, “NC Mutual” or “Company”) was originally chartered under the laws of the State of North Carolina as a mutual assessment company on February 28, 1899, with the name North Carolina Mutual and Provident Association. An amendment to the charter was filed at the office of the Secretary of State of North Carolina on August 6, 1913, establishing the Association as a legal reserve company. In 1919, the Company’s name was changed to North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. On December 3, 2018, the Wake County Superior Court (hereinafter, the “Court”) issued an Order of Rehabilitation against NC Mutual and appointed the Commissioner of Insurance for the State of North Carolina as Rehabilitator. On December 3, 2018, the Court also issued a Confidentiality Order to ensure the confidentiality of the Rehabilitation proceeding and to seal the court file pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 58-30-20 and 58-30-70. On February 1, 2019, the Court issued an Order to Rescind Confidentiality Order and Unseal the Court File. In addition, on February 1, 2019, the Court entered an Order Granting Motion for Moratorium on Policy Surrenders and Other Relief (hereinafter “Moratorium”). On January 21, 2020, the Court issued an Order Amending Order of Rehabilitation changing the Rehabilitator’s reporting requirements to the Court from monthly to quarterly. On October 11, 2022, the Court entered an Order of Liquidation, with an effective date of October 31, 2022, and appointed the Commissioner of Insurance for the State of North Carolina as Liquidator. The Commissioner of Insurance of the State of North Carolina, in his capacity as Rehabilitator and Liquidator of NC Mutual, is hereinafter referred to as Receiver.

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

The purpose of this report is to provide an update to the Court on the work that the Receiver and his staff have carried out since the issuance of the Rehabilitation Order, to set out the present situation of NC Mutual, and to provide a statement of financial position (balance sheet) as of March 31, 2026, and statement of receipts and disbursements through March 31, 2026.

LIMITATIONS

This report is based only on the knowledge that the Receiver and his staff have gained from the work performed since the issuance of the Order of Rehabilitation. Facts may exist that the Receiver is unaware of that may have a material effect on the information provided in this report. The Receiver will update the information in future reports as additional facts are discovered.

SUMMARY

NC MUTUAL PROPERTY

- In accordance with the Order of Rehabilitation, the Receiver took possession of all known assets and property of NC Mutual.
- The Receiver completed the sale of certain assets of its wholly owned subsidiary, North Carolina Mutual Financial, LLC (“NCMF”), on June 17, 2019. NC Mutual received approximately $4 million of cash from the sale of such assets and transfer of NCMF’s retained assets.
- The Receiver discontinued the operations of NC Mutual’s other wholly owned subsidiary, North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency, LLC. The Receiver successfully negotiated settlements with North Carolina Mutual Insurance Agency's creditors and made a pro rata distribution of the remaining assets.

- In 2019 the Receiver received two unsolicited offers to purchase a portion of NC Mutual's mortgage loan portfolio. The Receiver determined that acceptance of the offers was not in the best interest of NC Mutual. On August 16, 2022, the Receiver sold the mortgage loan portfolio for $3,332,758.01.
- On December 16, 2020, the Receiver sold 186,040 shares of M&F Bancorp, Inc. common stock for $617,652.80.
- The Receiver continues evaluating real property held by NC Mutual to determine the appropriate disposition of these assets. One property had a structure that was condemned, and the Receiver donated the structure to the local fire department to use for training purposes. A controlled burn took place on December 12, 2020, with at least 10 fire departments participating. The sale of the property closed May 3, 2021, with total proceeds received of $45,531.
- The Receiver received an offer to novate NC Mutual's Cancer and Dread Disease Medical Insurance Coverage book of business. The Receiver worked to finalize agreements and obtain regulatory approvals necessary to complete the transaction. However, it was determined that the transaction could not be completed in a cost-effective manner for both parties that would meet all requirements to obtain approvals. As of October 15, 2021, cancellation notices, in accordance with the terms of the Dread Disease Medical Insurance policies, were mailed to all group policyholders and certificate holders.
- The Receiver has been made aware of a pending unclaimed property audit involving thirty-one (31) state Departments of Revenue. At the Receiver's request, Verus Analytics, LLC (the appointed auditor) and the North Carolina Department of Revenue have agreed to suspend the audit.
- On October 11, 2021, four parcels of land owned by NC Mutual in Durham, NC were listed for sale. The parcels were packaged together for a total list price of $109,900.
- On December 17, 2021, one parcel of land owned by NC Mutual was sold for $11,287.
- On February 28, 2022, two parcels of land owned by NC Mutual were sold for a total of $20,400.
- The Receiver discontinued the use of outdated equipment including on-site servers and has migrated systems to more secure Cloud based servers. With this change, there were costs associated with acquiring and replacing laptop computers and necessary peripherals for staff. Going forward there will be cost savings associated with utilizing cloud-based servers and storage.

EXPENSE REDUCTIONS

- The Receiver has evaluated all of NC Mutual's contracts to identify those that are essential for ongoing operations. As part of this effort, the Receiver has and continues to negotiate more favorable terms of essential contracts as they are up for renewal.
- The Receiver has canceled unnecessary services such as cell phones issued to staff of NC Mutual.
- NC Mutual's staff was reduced by nine positions in early 2019, resulting in an annualized savings of approximately $1,200,000 in salaries and benefits. The Receiver has also terminated non-essential independent contractors. As of November 1, 2024, all NC Mutual staff transitioned to employment with EquiTrust.

- The Receiver terminated NC Mutual's annual statutory financial audit as financial statements prepared during the Rehabilitation and Liquidation proceedings will be prepared under the supervision of the Receiver's staff. Termination of the audit results is an annual expense reduction of approximately $173,000. Batchelor Tillery & Roberts, LLP has been engaged to conduct the audits of cash receipts and disbursements.
- The Receiver replaced certain IT equipment of NC Mutual during rehabilitation which resulted in an annualized expense reduction of approximately $70,000.
- On October 7, 2020, the Receiver filed a Motion for Approval to Reject and Disavow ("Motion") the unexpired lease agreement for office space used by NC Mutual. On or about October 10, 2020, the Receiver received notice that the office space property was under new ownership. Following such notice, the Receiver entered into negotiations with the new landlord and on January 28, 2021, the Receiver entered into an amendment to the existing lease whereby NC Mutual relocated from the 12th floor to the 3rd floor of the building following certain improvements to be made by the landlord. Following relocation to the 3rd floor in June 2021, NC Mutual's monthly lease expense was reduced by approximately $27,000 per month. As a result of the negotiations, the October 7, 2020, Motion was withdrawn. An extension to the lease through January 1, 2024, was executed on January 4, 2023. The lease was extended on January 22, 2024, for another year through January 1, 2025, with an option to terminate with notice without default on or after August 1, 2024.
- The Receiver has adjusted the current services provided by NC Mutual's appointed actuary resulting in annualized expense reduction of approximately $42,000.
- In late 2021, the Receiver replaced the Company's accounting software with QuickBooks Enterprise resulting in an annualized expense reduction of approximately $52,000.

To the Receiver's knowledge, at the time of the Order of Rehabilitation and through December 31, 2025, NC Mutual was a party to the following lawsuits:

NC Mutual sought and received an extension for the time to file its response to Port Royal's Motion to Compel Arbitration. NC Mutual filed a response to Port Royal's Motion to Compel Arbitration on January 22, 2020. On April 10, 2020, the Court granted Port Royal's Motion to Compel Arbitration and stayed the current action as to Port Royal only. In accordance with the Court's December 27, 2019, order, NC Mutual mediated its claims against defendants Reifler and Wasitowski on May 8, 2020. The mediation did not result in a settlement. NC Mutual filed a Motion to Extend Discovery Deadlines in the action on May 28, 2020, which was supplemented on May 28, 2020. On November 25, 2020, Reifler filed a Motion for Reconsideration, asking the Court to reconsider its decision to deny his Motion to Quash Depositions. On November 30, 2020, NC Mutual filed its response in opposition to Reifler's motion to dismiss and on December 11, 2020, Reifler filed his reply. Reifler's motion to dismiss remains pending. On December 4, 2020, NC Mutual filed its response in opposition to Reifler's Motion for Reconsideration. On December 4, 2020, NC Mutual filed its Fourth Motion to Extend Discovery Deadlines. Pursuant to the Court's December 16, 2020, Order, discovery is to be completed by February 5, 2021, and the trial was set for October 4, 2021.

On December 1, 2020, Reifler was indicted by a grand jury in the Middle District of North Carolina for four counts of wire fraud and one count of perjury in case number 1:20-CR-512-1. The indictment alleges, among other things, that Reifler developed a scheme to defraud NC Mutual¹ to divert its' assets for his personal use and benefit. The indictment further alleges that Reifler perjured himself by submitting a declaration in this litigation² that was false. On January 7, 2021, NC Mutual filed a Motion to Stay this action following Reifler's felony indictment for related criminal conduct. Reifler responded on January 25, 2021, to which NC Mutual replied on January 27, 2021. The Motion to Stay was denied on April 30, 2021. On March 5, 2021, NC Mutual filed a motion for extension of time to complete discovery and file dispositive motion while the motion to stay was pending. The Court denied the motion for extension of time on March 12, 2021.

On July 6, 2021, NC Mutual filed a motion for sanctions related to Reifler's spoliation of certain evidence. Reifler responded in opposition on July 28, 2021. On July 19, 2021, NC Mutual filed a second motion for sanctions related to Reifler's failure to comply with certain discovery requirements. On July 28, 2021, and August 9, 2021, Reifler filed oppositions to NC Mutual's motions for sanctions, to which NC Mutual replied on August 10, 2021, and August 20, 2021. On August 26, 2021, the Court issued a text order staying the case pending the resolution of Reifler's criminal trial.

² Similarly, the indictment does not explicitly name this litigation but it is clear that the declaration at issue was submitted in this litigation.

On May 5, 2022, Reifler pleaded guilty to one count of wire fraud in his criminal action pending in the Middle District of North Carolina. On October 27, 2022, Reifler was sentenced to a five-year term of imprisonment and ordered to pay NC Mutual approximately $20.3 million.

On May 1, 2023, NC Mutual filed a motion to lift the stay as to Reifler following Reifler's report to begin his term of imprisonment.

On May 12, 2023, Reifler responded in opposition to lifting the stay. That same day, Reifler filed a "request for review" of his pending Motion to Dismiss (filed in 2020).

On May 26, 2023, NC Mutual filed its reply in support of its motion to lift the stay and filed a response in opposition to the "request for review" filed by Reifler.

On August 17, 2023, NC Mutual and Wasitowski filed a Consent Motion to Lift the Stay as to Defendant Wasitowski for the limited purpose of filing a dismissal of Defendant Wasitowski from the litigation. That motion was granted on September 20, 2023.

On September 22, 2023, NC Mutual and Wasitowski filed a consent motion to dismiss Defendant Wasitowski from the litigation. That motion was granted on September 28, 2023.

On November 11, 2023, the Court entered an order lifting the stay to permit the matter to proceed against Reifler. The Court then entered a notice of trial calendar setting this matter for trial on December 4, 2024.

On March 13, 2024, Magistrate Judge Peake entered an order on NC Mutual's two pending motions for sanctions. The court denied the motions to the extent they sought entry of a default judgment. The court granted in part the motions to permit a proposed jury instruction on Reifler's spoliation and discovery violations at the upcoming trial of the matter. The court also set deadlines to file pretrial disclosure and motions.

On May 3, 2024, Reifler filed a motion to continue the trial date from December 2, 2024, until after he is released from prison in 2025. NC Mutual filed its response in opposition on May 24, 2024. The motion remains pending.

On October 22, 2024, NC Mutual filed a number of pretrial motions, including a motion to exclude previously undisclosed expert witness testimony and a motion in limine regarding the preclusive impact of Mr. Reifler's guilty plea on the upcoming trial.

On November 7, 2024, the parties filed a joint motion for consent judgment. In the consent Judgment, Reifler agrees to pay NC Mutual $60,966,660 plus $2,693,000 in attorneys' fees, and post-judgment interest at the legal rate until the judgment is paid in full. On November 21, 2024, the Court entered the proposed Consent Judgment against Reifler.

On April 16, 2025, NC Mutual filed a motion for default judgment as to all of the remaining defendants in the matter: (1) FF Sully Partners, LP; (2) Forefront Capital Services, LLC; (3) Forefront Partners Short Terms Notes, LLC; (4) Stamford Brook Capital, LLC; (5) Forefront Capital Holdings, LLC; and (6) Michael Flatley. The Motion asks the Court to enter a default judgment for the same amount as Reifler's Consent Judgment, consisting of compensatory damages in the amount of $60,966,660 plus $2,693,000 in attorneys' fees, and post-judgment interest at the legal rate until the judgment is paid in full.

On June 10, 2025, NC Mutual and Port Royal filed a joint report on the status of the pending arbitration between them.

On August 15, 2025, the case was reassigned from Judge Loretta Biggs to Judge Catherine Eagles.

On August 18, 2025, NC Mutual's motions for default judgment as to the remaining defendants was submitted to Judge Eagles for review.

On September 3, 2025, Judge Eagles granted NC Mutual's motion for default judgment as to the remaining defendants consisting of compensatory damages in the amount of $60,966,660 plus $2,693,000 in attorneys' fees, and post-judgment interest at the legal rate until the judgment is paid in full. That same day, Judge Eagles issued an order that absent an objection from NC Mutual or Port Royal, the case would be administratively closed because the only remaining filings are status reports on the ongoing arbitration between those two parties.

On September 16, 2025, Judge Eagles administratively closed the litigation.

On January 22, 2026, Plaintiffs and Port Royal filed a stipulation of dismissal of Plaintiffs' claims against Port Royal.

Settlement Agreement with Joel Schreiber

On October 17, 2018, NC Mutual entered into a settlement agreement with Joel Schreiber regarding the repayment of loans made to Schreiber and/or various entities owned by Schreiber from NC Mutual assets improperly transferred through the named defendants in this action. A $250,000.00 payment was made by Schreiber on March 18, 2019. On May 13, 2019, NC Mutual and Schreiber entered into a third amendment to the October 17, 2018 settlement agreement whereby Schreiber agreed to make a $250,000.00 partial payment on May 13, 2019 and further agreed that in the event the balance of the Settlement Amount following such payment is not indefeasibly paid in full by May 24, 2019, in addition to the Late Penalty being increased from $10,000.00 to $15,000.00 per day (as set forth in the Second Amendment to the Settlement Agreement), the balance of the Settlement Amount shall immediately increase by $50,000.00 and the Initial Payment Date shall be deemed extended from May 25, 2019 to June 27, 2019. In the event the new Settlement Amount is not indefeasibly paid in full by September 30, 2019, the Late Penalty shall be $15,000.00 per day (as set forth in the Third Amendment to Settlement Agreement). Pursuant to the Fifth Amendment, payment of $100,000.00 was received on August 16, 2019. On September 18, 2019, NC Mutual and Schreiber entered into a sixth amendment to the October 17, 2018 settlement whereby Schreiber agreed to make a $100,000.00 partial payment no later than September 20, 2019, and further agreed that in the event the balance of the Settlement Amount following such payment is not indefeasibly paid in full by September 19, 2019, the Initial Payment Date shall be deemed extended to November 15, 2019, and the Settlement Amount of $1,565,018.00 shall be immediately increased by $50,000.00. North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company v. Bradley Reifler, Case No. 17-35075;

United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York

On January 20, 2017, Bradley Reifler filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York. On May 1, 2017, NC Mutual filed a Verified Complaint for Non-Dischargeability of Debts and Denial of Discharge. On September 12, 2017, NC Mutual issued multiple deposition notices with subpoenas seeking documents. On November 16, 2017, the Court issued a Scheduling Order mandating that discovery end on March 15, 2018. An extension to discovery was granted up to March 19, 2018. On December 28, 2017, the Court ordered Defendant Reifler to turn over computers and electronic devices to forensic expert for analysis. On January 16, 2018, NC Mutual filed a Motion for Contempt alleging Defendant Reifler's violations of the Court Order regarding electronic devices and seeking judgment by default against Defendant Reifler as a penalty. On February 6, 2018, the Court issued an Order finding Defendant Reifler in contempt and ordering him to fully comply with the Order regarding electronic devices and to pay NC Mutual's attorney fees and expert fees. The Court noted that further violations by Defendant Reifler could result in entry of judgment in favor of N.C. Mutual. In March 2018, NC Mutual took multiple depositions. On May 4, 2018, following an evidentiary hearing, the Court issued an Order Finding Defendant in Continuing Contempt of Court Imposing Additional Sanctions and Entering Default Judgment. Defendant Reifler appealed the Order entering default judgment against him to the United States District Court, Southern District of New York. On January 31, 2019, the United States District Court, Southern District of New York issued an Order affirming the May 4, 2018, Order of the Bankruptcy Court and ordering the clerk of court to enter the judgment for NC Mutual and close the case. To date, Reifler has not appealed the District Court's order and his time to do so under applicable rules has expired. On or about June 23, 2020, the bankruptcy trustee filed an interim final report and interim fee application with the Bankruptcy Court.

On February 7, 2025, a Reifler-affiliated Forefront entity filed a Motion to Abandon Property seeking the Court's approval for the trustee to abandon Reifler's membership interest in two of his Forefront related entities such that those entities could proceed with litigation to recover tens of millions of dollars from a failed business deal. NC Mutual filed a limited objection to that motion where NC Mutual sought for the Court to appoint a new manager of the Forefront related entities so that those entities could proceed with the separate litigation and collect funds which, at least in some part, could be used to repay NC Mutual. The Court denied that motion on April 25, 2025.

On July 25, 2025, the Trustee filed a Notice of Abandonment of Property related to Reifler's membership interest in two of the Forefront related entities. A third party filed an objection to that notice because of its impact on separate litigation between Reifler's Forefront entities and the third party.

On September 25, 2025, NC Mutual filed a response in opposition to the objection in an effort to allow the Forefront entities to proceed with separate litigation and collect funds which, at least in part, could be used to repay NC Mutual. The Trustee also filed a response to the objection. The Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on the motion and objection on October 23, 2025. The motion remains pending.

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company v. Steven Fickes, Case No. 1:22-cv-501, United States District Court, Middle District of North Carolina

On June 30, 2022, NC Mutual filed suit against Steven Fickes for his role in the improper transfer of more than $34 million of NC Mutual's assets to and through Mr. Reifler and his Forefront companies, discussed above. The complaint alleges the following causes of action: fraud, negligent misrepresentation; RICO Act violations, unfair and deceptive trade practices, civil conspiracy, breach of contract, unjust enrichment, and piercing the corporate veil.

On September 6, 2022, Fickes moved to dismiss the action and compel NC Mutual to litigate its claims against him in arbitration. On September 27, 2022, NC Mutual responded to Fickes' motion and agreed to arbitrate its claims against Fickes in order to preserve the company's resources. NC Mutual asked the Court to stay this matter while the parties pursue arbitration. On October 4, 2022, Fickes replied in support of his motion seeking dismissal of the action.

On October 10, 2023, the Court granted Fickes' Motion to Compel Arbitration and compelled NC Mutual's claims against Fickes to be heard in arbitration.

On December 12, 2024, NC Mutual submitted a report to the court reflecting that the parties have selected two arbitrators. The arbitrators have, in turn, selected an umpire and are ready to proceed with the arbitration. The parties are working with the Panel to establish an arbitration schedule.

On March 11, 2025, NC Mutual and Fickes filed a report to the court reflecting that the three-person arbitration panel had been selected, and an organizational meeting was scheduled for March 13, 2025.

Thomas v. NCDOL, et al; In The Circuit Court of Hillsborough County Florida in and for The Thirteenth Judicial District, Case No. 24-CA-007087

On August 29, 2024, Thomas filed an action alleging breach of contract and fraudulent conduct on the part of NC Mutual by and through Stacia Cooper and Michael L. Lawrence with respect to loans his sister took out on his brother's life insurance policy with NC Mutual in the Circuit Court of Hillsborough County. The defendant maintains that the loans were fraudulent and that NC Mutual allowed the loans without proper authorization or documentation. Thomas asserts claims against Defendants for conspiracy, negligence, fraud, and breach of contract. On September 20, 2024, the NC Defendants filed a motion for extension of time to file a responsive pleading. On October 23, 2024, the NC Defendants filed a motion to dismiss, asserting that the claims are barred by the doctrines of res judicata, immunity, and the statute of limitations, and asserting lack of subject matter and personal jurisdiction, and that the complaint fails to state a claim for relief. The NC Defendants also requested a declaration that Plaintiff be named a "vexatious litigant" as he has filed four previous lawsuits alleging the same or similar causes of action including in (1) the District Court for the Southern District of Alabama, Case No. 18-445-TFM-N (2) the County Court of Hillsborough County (Small Claims Court) in Florida, Case No. 20-CC-043897 (M) (3) the Eastern District of North Carolina, Western Division, Case no. 5:22-cv-00291-M and (4) in the County Court of Hillsborough County in Florida, Case No. 23-CC-127014, Division K. Cheryl Thomas, Justice of the Circuit Court of Hillsborough County Florida in and for The Thirteenth Judicial District. On February 26, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Rehearing and a Motion to Disqualify Judge Thomas. On February 28, 2025, the Court entered an Order denying the Motion for Rehearing and an Order denying the Motion to Disqualify. On March 4, 2025, the Court dismissed the case, finding, among other things, that Plaintiff's claims were barred by res judicata, that Wake County Superior Court has exclusive jurisdiction over all claims against the company, that Plaintiff's claims are untimely, and ordering that Plaintiff may not make further filings without a Florida licensed counsel. On March 14, 2025, Plaintiff again filed a Motion for Rehearing and a Motion to Disqualify Judge Thomas. On March 24, 2025, the NC Defendants filed a Motion to Enforce the March 4, 2025, Order of Dismissal with Prejudice and Motion to Impose Graduated Sanctions Order Against Plaintiff's Continued Pro Se Filings, and Motion to Determine Response Obligations of North Carolina Defendants to Plaintiff's Pro Se Motion for Rehearing. On April 3, 2025, the Court again denied the Motion for Rehearing and the Motion to Disqualify. A hearing on the North Carolina Defendant's Motion for Sanctions took place on April 29, 2025, Plaintiff filed a notice of appeal of the March 4, 2025, Decision and Order granting the North Carolina Defendant's motion to dismiss. Plaintiff filed his initial brief on appeal on July 7, 2025. The Defendants' brief was filed on September 5, 2025. On September 18, 2025, Plaintiff filed his reply brief. On January 2, 2026, the Second District Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment below per curiam. On January 16, 2026, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Rehearing, Rehearing en banc, and to Certify a Question of Great Public Important (sic) and a Motion to Disqualify the appellate judges who heard the matter. On March 5, 2026, Plaintiff's motions for rehearing, rehearing en banc, and to disqualify, along with a request to certify a question of great public importance, were denied. On March 19, 2026, Plaintiff's Notice to Invoke Discretionary Jurisdiction, seeking review of the order issued on January 2, 2026 was dismissed.

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company v. Forefront Partners, LLC, No. 2025-1191, In the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware

On October 20, 2025, NC Mutual filed a Verified Petition for Charging Order Pursuant to 6 De. C. § 18-703 seeking a charging order against the Delaware limited liability company membership interests of Bardley Reifler in Forefront Partners, LLC. A charging order, if entered, would require Forefront Partners to pay any membership distribution payments that would otherwise go to Reifler be paid to NC Mutual as payment on NC Mutual's judgment against Reifler.

On February 24, 2026, NC Mutual filed a Motion for Default Judgment for Forefront Partners' failure to respond to the action. That motion remains pending.

OTHER MATTERS

- The Receiver purchased a one-year extended reporting period on NC Mutual's expired Directors & Officers insurance policy in 2019. On November 15, 2019, the Receiver filed a notice of claim under the Directors & Officers insurance policy. This claim remains open.
- Pursuant to the Moratorium Order, the Receiver imposed a moratorium on cash surrenders, annuitizations, and policy loans against NC Mutual policies until such time as the Court approves lifting of the moratorium. With the Liquidation Order, the moratorium was lifted effective October 31, 2022.
- In accordance with the Moratorium Order, the Receiver adopted and implemented a policy to provide substitute benefits in lieu of the contractual obligations of NC Mutual for annuity benefits and cash withdrawals for NC Mutual Policyholders who petitioned for payment under claims of legitimate hardship. NC Mutual received and evaluated claims of hardship on a case-by-case basis. Through October 31, 2022, the Receiver received 960 hardship requests and closed 943 of such requests. With the Liquidation Order, claims of hardship are no longer necessary to be requested.

- The Receiver has evaluated options related to funding of NC Mutual's defined pension plan and has determined that it is in the best interest of NC Mutual to make annual contributions in the minimum required amount. As such, NC Mutual made contributions of $116,500 on June 14, 2019, and $615,499 on April 14, 2020, $71,499 on September 30, 2020, $71,499 on October 31, 2020, $71,499 on January 1, 2021, $56,470 on April 30, 2021, $67,115 on July 15, 2021, $47,953 on September 30, 2021, and $67,115 on October 15, 2021. On September 30, 2022, the contribution for the 2021 plan year was made totaling $108,659. The Receiver is currently working with the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation to transfer NC Mutual's pension obligations.
- The Governor of North Carolina declared a state of emergency on March 10, 2020, followed by the city and county of Durham, on March 15, 2020, due to COVID-19. In response, a business continuity plan was instituted for the Company and the offices were temporarily closed to the public on March 19, 2020. The Receiver worked to facilitate NC Mutual staff working from home in anticipation of the stay-at-home orders issued by the State and local authorities. The office remains closed to the public and staff continue to work from home.
- On March 27, 2019, in accordance with NC Mutual's bylaws, the Receiver held the 2019 annual meeting of policyholders. Due to COVID-19 and the stay-at-home orders in effect, the 2020 annual meeting of policyholders was not held. Although the stay-at-home orders were lifted, continued COVID-19 restrictions on gatherings and social distancing requirements remained in effect and as such the 2021 annual meeting of policyholders was not held.
- Effective September 15, 2020, NC Mutual and Southland National Insurance Corporation ("Southland") amended their December 31, 2014, Reinsurance and Administration Agreement (the "Agreement") whereby NC Mutual ceded and retroceded to Southland, on a one hundred percent (100%) indemnity reinsurance basis, certain insurance policies previously written or assumed by NC Mutual. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Southland (as Grantor) established a reinsurance trust to secure its obligations to NC Mutual. Following notice from the trustee of its intent to resign, NC Mutual and Southland amended the Agreement and voluntarily terminated the trust agreement effective September 15, 2020. In conjunction with termination of the trust agreement, the trustee was instructed to transfer all "Eligible Assets," as such term is defined in the Agreement, to NC Mutual and to transfer all other assets (the "Ineligible Assets"), then described as being held in the trust, to Southland. In accordance with the amended Agreement, the Ineligible Assets are pledged to NC Mutual and NC Mutual has made a UCC-1 filing to secure its interest in the Ineligible Assets. Following notification from Southland of its inability to perform under the terms of the Agreement, NC Mutual issued a notice of default informing Southland, pursuant to the terms of the amended Agreement, the Eligible Assets previously transferred will be used to satisfy Southland's monthly obligations owing to NC Mutual. The impact of Southland's default is more fully described in Note A of the financial statement. Additionally, absent recovery on the Ineligible Assets and upon exhaustion of the Eligible Assets, NC Mutual will no longer receive the $4.00 per in-force policy administration fee provided for in the Agreement. On March 12, 2021, Mike Causey, Commissioner of Insurance of North Carolina and rehabilitator of Southland, filed a Verified Petition for an Order of Liquidation against Southland and Petition Seeking Injunctive Relief in the Wake County Superior Court.

- On September 4, 2021, Mike Causey, Commissioner of Insurance of North Carolina and Receiver of NC Mutual, filed a Verified Petition for an Order of Liquidation against NC Mutual, Petition Seeking Injunctive Relief and Approval of Service Agreement and Early Access Agreement in the Wake County Superior Court. On October 11, 2022, the Court entered an Order of Liquidation, with an effective date of October 31, 2022, and appointed the Commissioner of Insurance for the State of North Carolina as Liquidator.
- On October 4, 2024, NC Mutual and EquiTrust Life Insurance Company ("EquiTrust"), after lengthy negotiations between NOLHGA and EquiTrust, entered a transaction whereby EquiTrust would assume the policies of NC Mutual. There are three agreements related to the EquiTrust transaction: (1) Assumption Reinsurance Agreement between NOLHGA & EquiTrust; (2) Service Agreement between NOLHGA and EquiTrust; and (3) Asset Purchase Agreement between NC Mutual and EquiTrust. The first two agreements did not require Court approval.
- Pursuant to the Assumption Reinsurance Agreement, EquiTrust assumed all NC Mutual policies for which the policyholder can be located. For these policyholders, EquiTrust will issue an Assumption Certificate and will become fully liable to such policyholders. For policyholders that cannot be located and do not receive an assumption certificate, NOLHGA will continue to be liable for claims under such policies. However, any claim presented to NOLHGA under such policies will be adjudicated by EquiTrust in accordance with the terms of the Service Agreement. NOLHGA will then fund payment of such claims.
- Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement EquiTrust assumed certain NC Mutual vendor contracts/lease agreements and intellectual property needed to continue the administration of the policies.
- As part of the transaction, NC Mutual provided an early access distribution in the amount of $60 million to EquiTrust to assist with funding of the Assumption Reinsurance Agreement. The transfer to EquiTrust occurred on October 4, 2024. Both the early access and Asset Purchase Agreement were approved by the Receivership Court on September 24, 2024. The Order was signed on September 27, 2024.
- On October 6, 2025, Mike Causey, Commissioner of Insurance of North Carolina and Receiver of NC Mutual, filed Liquidator's Motion for Court Approval of Fixed Claim Agreement with Guaranty Associations.
